

Safeguarding Responsibilities

Case Study

A leader has turned up very obviously drunk to the Anchor session. The Leader in charge has spoken to them and asked them to leave the premises. On their way out they were shouting and swearing, they tipped over the table at the front of the hall and pushed two chairs over. As Captain this has been promptly reported to you.

Suspension

Case Study 1

A suspended leader contacts you just before the start of the next session. They explain that their suspension was linked to a matter in their private lives which has now been 'No Further Actioned' by police and they are ready to return to the Company.

Case Study 2

A leader contacted you shortly after they were suspended by BBHQ Safeguarding Manager and explained that they were involved in a road rage incident and had been awaiting court proceedings when they were suspended. They pleaded guilty and were fined £50. They would like to return to BB.

Case Study 3

A leader was suspended after a BB young person alleged the leader hit them at a recent BB event. The leader has contacted you and stated that the police are taking no further action and they plan to be back at BB for the next meeting.

Communication Case Study

The BB Safeguarding Manager has contacted you in relation to your suspended leader. She can now tell you that she was charged with non-recent sexual offences from over 15 years ago (non-BB setting) and that they were found guilty at court today, after a trial. It's Tuesday today and it is expected this will be reported in the local paper on Thursday. It may appear in the media online before then.
