Cornwall's Lord Lieutenant, Col. Edward Bolitho, presented Francis Howell and Jacob Colgan with their Queen's Badges at the Company's annual enrolment service. Col. Bolitho praised the boys for their commitment and achievement. He recalled meeting them with HRH Prince Charles and The Duchess of Cornwall at an event last summer, in which they represented the Cornwall Battalion.

1st Chester-le-Street

On Sunday 6th July three young men from 1st Chester-le-Street received their Queen's and President's Badges from Mr Kevin Ball, Senior Professional Development Coach at Sunderland A.F.C. Matthew Perry was presented with his President's Badge and Ben King and James Hewitson both received their Queen's Badge. Ben and James are keen Sunderland supporters and when approached to present the awards, Mr Ball readily agreed.

8th South Shields

1st Ponteland

7th Newtownabbey

Seven young men from 7th Newtownabbey were awarded their Queen's Badge on the 4th April 2014. They undertook work in the community such as cleaning up after public events, gardening work for the elderly, and three of them took time out to go and assist in gardening in the RUC GC Memorial Garden at Police Headquarters. During the summer of 2013 some of the young men went to Cavehill Methodist and assisted in running a kids' club while others helped in the friendship centre at Newtownabbey Methodist Mission. They also helped each other achieve the awards by teaching new skills on guitar and drums.
