

GREED

PART OF THE ROALD DAHL THEMED PROGRAMME

▶▶ GETTING INTO THE ACTIVITY

Some of the characters in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory end up in bad situations because of their greed. Do we get greedy? What does God think about greed?

In Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, five lucky children visit Willy Wonka's chocolate factory. However, whilst there, four of the children end up dropping out of the tour because their greed gets the better of them. Watch how one of the children, Augustus Gloop, became too greedy and ends up falling in a river of chocolate - <https://youtu.be/lzmzZaB0kss>

Only Charlie makes it to the end of the tour and because of this he ends up winning ownership of the factory. Charlie passed Willy Wonka's test and showed that he wasn't greedy or selfish. Charlie is a good boy who is kind, brave and grateful for what he has.

Are you like Charlie or are you like Augustus? Can you think of times that you get greedy? God wants us to be like Charlie. We should think of others, share, look out for others and not be jealous. What can we do in our lives to be more like Charlie?

'A greedy person causes trouble, but the one who trusts the Lord will succeed.' Proverbs 28:25
