

POSTCARD TO A TEACHER

GET INVOLVED

30 MINUTES

IN THE CUPBOARD

▶▶ GETTING INTO THE ACTIVITY

For many it will have been roughly 50 days since you were last at school with your friends and teachers. Send a postcard to your teacher letting them know you are missing them and school.

Design your postcard. On one side of a piece of paper you'll need to create a colourful image. This might be of your school, teacher and classmates. Alternately it could be all the things you have been doing since lockdown started. The image is completely up to you, be as creative as you can.

Now you'll need to write a message on the back. Think about what you'd like to tell your teacher. This might be how much you are missing school, what subject you are missing most, what you have been doing for home schooling, what you've been doing with your family and what #BBatHOME activities you have completed.

Once complete you can either post the postcard to your school or email it to the teacher.

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

- Paper
- Pen
- Colouring Pens

NOTES FOR PARENTS & CARERS

All activity should be supervised by an adult and the adult should make contact with the school. Share a picture of the postcard with your BB group or post on social media using #BBatHOME.