

GIANT BATTLESHIPS

GET ACTIVE

20 MINUTES

PREPARATION NEEDED

GETTING INTO THE ACTIVITY

Take the game of Battleships and turn it into a life size version to play in your home.

Hang a large blanket in the middle of a room or garden. This should be tall enough that you can't see the ground the other side. You and your opponent will both need 5+ household objects (of different sizes) to randomly place on the floor on your side of the blanket. These are your battleships.

Take it in turns to throw a sock ball over the blanket to hopefully land on one of the battleships. If you hit the ship, then that item should be removed from the game. If you miss, then your opponent should tell you how far away you were from the closest ship. This will help you aim when it is your turn again. Take it in turns to throw the sock balls, until one player has hit all 5 objects and won the game.

Share a photo of you playing giant battleships with your BB group or post on social media using #BBatHOME.
