GETTING INTO THE ACTIVITY

To help celebrate VE Day, take yourself back 75 years to WWII, by watching a film based around the war and then reviewing it afterwards.

This year marks 75 years since VE Day, when World War II ended in Europe. Since then, many films have been made looking back at the events of WWII. Watch one of those films. Some suggestions of film are: Dunkirk, Saving Private Ryan, Hacksaw Ridge, Midway, Fury, The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas.

After watching the film, write a short review of the story and how it portrayed WWII. You might want to think about the story that was told, what life was like for the characters, how you think you would cope if you were in that situation and how it made you feel watching it. Your film review could be a written one, but you could also make a collage or record a video.

Share your film review with your BB group or post on social media using #BBatHOME.
