GETTING INTO THE ACTIVITY

Celebrate World Emoji Day (17th July) by taking part in an emoji treasure hunt. How quickly can you find all 15 emojis?

Print out the emoji treasure hunt activity sheet or draw a set of emojis yourself. Cut up the emojis on the sheet into individual cards.

Ask a grown-up to hide the cards around your house and/or garden. They could also hide some sweets along with the cards too. The cards should be hidden in some hard to find places that will test your skills to look for and find them. Once all the emojis are hidden, your job is to find them all. Set a timer and see how long it takes you.

Take it further: You could now hide the cards for a family member to find. Can they beat your time? You could also spend some time thinking about what each emoji represents (i.e. sad, happy, cheeky).

Ask a grown-up to take a photo or video of your emoji treasure hunt and share it with your BB group or post on social media using #BBatHOME.
