GETTING INTO THE ACTIVITY

We use emojis every day to help us communicate with each other. Can you use your emoji knowledge to work out the hidden Christmas films and song titles?

Download the 'Christmas Emojis' PowerPoint. On the PowerPoint you'll find 15 different sets of emojis. Each line of emojis is giving clues to a famous Christmas film or song. Try to put the emojis together to work out the hidden answer. For each question there is a clue to help you out.

Play the game by writing down your guesses and revealing the answers at the end, awarding a point for every correct answer. Another way to play could be to challenge family members to a head to head competition. First person to guess the correct answer receives a point. Which family member can score the most points?

Take it further: Try and create your own Christmas themed emoji questions. Is there a song or film not on the PowerPoint, which you could re-create using emojis? Try them out on your family members or send them to your BB group.

Share a picture of you completing the Emoji quiz activity with your BB group or post on social media using #BBatHOME.
