BRIGADE REGULATIONS

SECTION ONE INTRODUCTION

The Boys' Brigade

The Boys' Brigade is a Christian uniformed youth organisation which was founded on 4 October 1883. The evolution of The Brigade over the years has resulted in many successes in delivering Christian children's and youth work into the community as well as introducing many young people to faith and the life of the church. The Brigade is committed to Christian outreach work within our communities.

The constitution of The Boys' Brigade

The National organisation of The Boys' Brigade is registered at Companies House as company number 145122, with the Charity Commission as charity number 305969, and with the office of the Scottish Charity Regulator as number SC038016.

The Charity operates under a Memorandum and Articles of Association which is supported by Brigade Regulations. The Memorandum and Articles of Association contains the legal framework through which the Charity must operate and takes into account the good governance principles that are promoted by the Charity Commission.

The Boys' Brigade as a movement is a wide and complex organisation involving many component parts which form part of a Christian endeavour to promote and advance the Christian faith. To that end, its constitution needs to reflect the way in which it operates. Over time, operations change as new proposals are considered and Brigade Regulations are used to set out the detail for both the Charity and The Brigade movement. The use of Regulations enables changes to be made in a timely manner rather than having to amend the governing documents which would require Charity Commission approval.

Each Brigade Regulation specifies how it may be amended.

PART A – LEADERSHIP

1

1.1 In these Regulations, the expression “Leaders” shall include Captains, Lieutenants, Warrant Officers, Chaplains, Instructors, Amicus Leaders, Helpers, Reserve Officers and other adult Leaders over the age of 18 years.

1.2 In these Regulations, the expression “Safeguarding Panel” means the Panel constituted by the Executive for these purposes.

2 The Church or other Christian Organisation of which the Company is a part will nominate for Registration all Leaders, and as part of that process will ensure that the following actions are taken:-

2.1 with the exception of a prospective Captain, Chaplain, or Reserve Officer who is already a Registered Leader, all prospective Leaders will be interviewed by the Company Captain and by the Chaplain of the Church or other Organisation of which the Company is a part, or by a member delegated to carry out that function.

2.2 with the exception of a prospective Captain, Chaplain, or Reserve Officer who is already a Registered Leader, written references as to the prospective Leader’s suitability to serve as a Boys’ Brigade Leader will be obtained from two people who are not related to the Applicant.

2.3 a Boys’ Brigade Leader’s Registration Application form will be completed.

2.4 the Applicant will complete a criminal record disclosure application form, which will be returned to the address specified.

3 On receipt of the completed documentation, the Applicant will forward the documentation to Brigade Headquarters. Brigade Headquarters will record the Application as a pending Registration. All categories of Leadership will be subject to an enhanced check. If the results of such checks reveal no matters recorded against the Applicant, and if the Application appears to be satisfactory, Brigade Headquarters will Register the Leader, allocate a Leader Registration Number, and issue to the Applicant a Leader Registration Card. Confirmation of the Registration will be sent to the Church or other Christian Organisation of which the Company is a part, to the relevant Battalion, and to

- the relevant Regional Headquarters Office. Pending confirmation of Registration, a prospective Leader may not work as a Leader.
- 4 If any information is revealed at any stage of the process of considering an Application for Registration that indicates that the Applicant should not be Registered, Brigade Headquarters will notify the Applicant in writing, setting out the reasons. Notification that the Applicant has not been Registered will be given to the Captain and to the church or other organisation of which the Company is a part.
 - 5 Where an Application for Registration is unsuccessful, the Applicant may appeal against the refusal. Such Appeal must be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Brigade Executive, Brigade Headquarters, Felden Lodge, no later than twenty eight days from the date of the notification of the refusal to Register. The Appeal will be determined by an Appeals Panel appointed by the Brigade Executive.
 - 6 If any information is revealed at any stage of the process of considering an Application for Registration which indicates that it is unclear whether the Applicant should be Registered or not, the question must be referred forthwith to the Head of Safeguarding at Brigade Headquarters, which will then refer the matter to the Safeguarding Panel. The Panel will consider all the information available, and will offer the Applicant the opportunity of being interviewed by members of the Panel. If the Panel conclude that the Applicant be suitable for Registration, then Brigade Headquarters will Register the Applicant as a Leader, and complete the steps set out in paragraph 3. On the recommendation of the Panel, Brigade Headquarters will have power to Register a Leader for a probationary period with a date set for review. Further, on the recommendation of the Panel, Brigade Headquarters will have power to Register a Leader subject to the imposition of conditions, which may be reviewed by the Panel from time to time. If the Panel conclude that the Applicant be unsuitable for Registration, then the provisions of paragraph 4 will apply.
 - 7 An Applicant whose Registration is refused by the Panel will have a right of Appeal to the Appeals Panel referred to at paragraph 5 above, and the procedure set out in paragraph 5 will apply.
 - 8 All allegations or suspicions of abuse, or other misconduct, or any criminal convictions must be reported immediately and directly to the Company Captain, who must refer the matter forthwith to the Head of Safeguarding at Brigade Headquarters. If such allegations arise in respect of a Company Captain, the matter must be

- reported to the Chaplain and to the Head of Safeguarding at Brigade Headquarters.
- 9 The Registration of any Leader under suspicion or against whom an allegation or complaint has been made may be suspended by the Brigade Secretary until the conclusion of any investigation. The Brigade Secretary or a person appointed on his behalf will notify the Leader of the suspension in writing, and will further notify the Company Captain, Chaplain, Battalion and Regional Headquarters Office.
 - 10 A Leader will have the right of Appeal against the suspension of his or her Registration, which Appeal must be notified in writing to the Chairman of the Brigade Executive, Brigade Headquarters, Felden Lodge, within fourteen days of the notification of suspension. The Appeal will be determined by The Brigade Safeguarding Panel.
 - 11 While under suspension, a Leader may not attend or participate in any Boys' Brigade activities whatsoever, at National, Regional, District, Battalion or Company level.
 - 12 The investigation on behalf of the Brigade of any allegation or suspicion of abuse, or of other misconduct, or of any criminal conviction will be carried out by the Safeguarding Panel. If the Panel determine that the allegation or suspicion be unfounded, Brigade Headquarters will reinstate the Leader's Registration. If the Panel determine that the allegation or suspicion be established, Brigade Headquarters will cancel the Registration of the Leader, who will then not be able to attend or participate in any Boys' Brigade activities whatsoever, at National, Regional, District, Battalion or Company level. Notification of the cancellation of Registration will be sent to the Leader, the Church or other Christian Organisation of which the Company is a part, the Battalion, and the relevant Regional Headquarters Office. A record of the cancellation will be made at Brigade Headquarters. A Leader whose Registration has been cancelled may appeal against the cancellation, and the procedure set out in paragraph 5 will apply.

- submit or cause to be submitted all the above documentation to Brigade Headquarters.
- 16 On receipt of the completed documentation, Brigade Headquarters will cause an enhanced check to be made at the relevant disclosure agency, and will record the Application as a pending Registration. If the results of such checks reveal no matters recorded against the Applicant, and if the Application appears to be satisfactory, Brigade Headquarters will Register the Applicant in the role to which he or she has been nominated, allocate a Registration number, and issue to the Official a Registration Card. In the case of Regional, District and Battalion Officials, the appropriate body will also be notified.
- 17 If any information is revealed at any stage of the process of considering an Application for Registration as an Official that indicates that the Applicant should not be Registered, the Brigade Secretary or a person appointed on his behalf will notify the Applicant in writing, setting out the reasons. Notification that the Applicant has not been Registered will be sent to the relevant body to which the Applicant has been nominated as an Official.
- 18 The provisions of paragraphs 5, 6, and 7, will apply to prospective Officials.
