▶▶ GETTING INTO THE ACTIVITY

A head-to-head race to crack the code and find the answer. Part of the 'House of Games' theme.

Download the 'This Round is in Code' PowerPoint and show this via a projector or screenshare (virtual). This contains the 8 codes and clues for this challenge. The rules for this activity are as follows:

- This game is played individually or in teams.
- Players are given a category, and the clue is shown in alpha-numeric code (i.e. 1=A, 2=B, 3=C, etc.).
- The players have to unscramble the codes to get a point.
- Players should 'buzz in' when they think they know the answer. Only the quickest player/team gets a point.
- If a player / team guesses incorrectly they are frozen out for that question.
- The person / team with the most points at the end of the round is the winner.

This activity is part of the 'House of Games' theme - a series of challenges based on the popular BBC TV show.
