THE BEST DAD IN THE GALAXY

▶▶ GETTING INTO THE ACTIVITY

Celebrate the best Dad or Grandad in the galaxy with this simple and brilliant Father's Day craft. Link to Father's Day \(Sunday 20th June 2021\)

- 1) Start with a piece of black card in landscape. Use star shape stickers (or draw your own stars) to create the word 'Dad', 'Pap' or a name to recognise a father figure. Make sure to leave big gaps between the stars, ready for the next step.
- 2) Use chalk or a white pen to draw lines between the stars to link them up to create the letters of the name. This will start to look like a constellation (a great opportunity to share with the group what constellations are).
- 3) Cut out and stick a 'Best Dad in the Galaxy' card onto the bottom of the artwork. There are also a couple of other options including best grandad and best person to choose from if needed.
- 4) Finish the card by using the chalk / white pen to place lots of small white dots over the black card, to look like small stars in the background.
- 5) Finally, write a message onto the back of the card to make the artwork into a Father's Day card.

Virtual: Send out the equipment in an activity pack beforehand or encourage children to use colouring pens and paper to draw their stars and constellation lines.
