MY JOURNEY

An opportunity to reflect on your journey to this point and appreciate the hard work and progress that has been made. Looking at your BB, Queen's Badge and faith journeys.

QUEEN'S BADGE COMPLETION

MY BB JOURNEY

- When did you first join The Boys' Brigade?
- Why / how did you join?
- What has been your highlight or proudest achievement of your time in the BB?
- Which part of the BB have you enjoyed the least?
- If you could go back to the day you joined BB and give your younger self one piece of advice about their BB journey to come, what would you say?

QUEEN'S BADGE COMPLETION

MY QUEEN'S BADGE JOURNEY

- What have you done for your Queen's Badge? (volunteering, leadership, physical etc)
- What has been the highlight of completing the Queen's Badge?
- Which area did you find the most challenging?
- What can you take away from your Queen's Badge experience that can be used in the future? (i.e a skill, increased confidence, knowing you can see things through etc).

MY FAITH JOURNEY

- Where would you place yourself on the football pitch?
- Have you always been in that position, or has it changed over time? If it has changed, what caused that change?
- Is the current position the position you want to be in? Or would you like to move up or down the pitch? If so, where would you like to move to and what do you need to do in order to do so?

PROJECT: DRAGON'S DEN

Take the current BB model and make ANY changes you want to it, to create the best version of the BB that you can think of.

- What activities / programme would you change / keep?
- What values & aims of the organisation need to change?
- What changes to our structure (i.e. age groups, genders, leadership etc) would you make?
- What should a young person be entitled to when they finish their time with your version of the BB? (i.e. What will they have experienced / had the opportunity to do / skills gained etc?)

LETTERS – PARABEL OF THE TALENTS

- What do you think the meaning of the parable is?
- Why does the master give different amounts instead of the same amount to each person?
- Does God give the same abilities and talents to us? Why not?
- Using the parable as an example, what do you think God wants us to do with our talents that he has given us?
