

Well Done

on completing the Your Future Programme: Explore & Plan

A programme for young people in The Boys' Brigade working in partnership with the University of Bolton. By completing the programme a young person will have had the opportunity to explore and plan their future, find out what they are passionate about, identify strengths, build their confidence, develop transferable skills and plan pathways to their future dreams.

Date

In partnership with

Well Done

on completing the Your Future Programme: Plan & Become

A programme for young people in The Boys' Brigade working in partnership with the University of Bolton. By completing the programme a young person will have had the opportunity to develop the skills needed to plan their futures, building on their strengths, learning more about themselves and exploring the options available to help them become the best future versions of themselves.

Date

In partnership with

